Come and Sing Fauré Requiem

All Saints' Church, Little Horton Green, Bradford BD5 0NG - Saturday, October 6th 2018, 2pm

The event

Tom Leech, the inspiring Musical Director of BFCS, will lead a workshop leading to a performance of the Fauré Requiem. We will also be exploring Ivor Gurney's The Trumpet, an elegaic setting of Edward Thomas' poetry and a response to the loss and trauma of the First World War, which the composer experienced first hand in the trenches. Our 'Come and Sing' events have been praised for combining a relaxed, friendly and informal atmosphere with brilliant musical content. You'll learn some wonderful music, enjoy Tom's insights, tips and humour, and pick up new vocal ideas along the way. Some music-reading ability and a little previous choral experience will help you get the most out of the afternoon.

Timetable

The afternoon will start with registration at 1.30 pm. The workshop will run from 2 to 5pm. There will be a performance at 6pm - please invite your friends and family! Entrance will be free.

The venue

All Saints' Church, Little Horton, is a beautiful, historic building. It can be cold in winter. We hope this won't be the case in May but you might like to bring some spare warm layers, just in case. More information from www.littlehorton.localchurch.org.uk

There is plenty of parking space available on Pullan Street and Kennion Street. Buses 268, 571, 640 and 641 stop nearby, outside St Luke's Hospital on Little Horton Lane.

Bradford Interchange railway and bus station is one mile from the church.

More information

- The church is kindly providing refreshments to buy at this event, with the proceeds going to the church's organ fund. There will be drinks and light snacks during a break in the workshop, and something more substantial between the workshop and the performance.
- There is no special dress code for the evening concert.
